(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department and the San Diego Regional Sexual Assault Felony Enforcement (SAFE) Task Force announce the presence of a high-risk sex offender in downtown San Diego.

Douglas Ernest Badger, a convicted sex offender, was released from Atascadero State Hospital and is not on parole or probation. Badger was convicted of multiple sex offenses and other related offenses to include kidnapping, oral copulation, oral copulation in concert with force, conspiracy to commit a crime, grand theft, violation of parole, fraud by wire, and assault with a deadly weapon.

Badger, 64, is not wanted by the San Diego Police Department. This information is being provided for citizen safety in accordance with Penal Code Section 290 and the San Diego County Regional Sex Offender Management Committee (SOMC) protocol. The purpose of this release is to inform the public of the presence of high-risk sex offenders living in their communities. Badger's current residence is in a trailer at Donovan State Prison. Badger's placement in the downtown area is temporary because of some emergency repairs being done to his trailer. It is anticipated that the repairs will be completed in the next 24 hours.
